SPONSORED HEAD SHAVE FOR ST NICHOLAS HOSPICE

On Wednesday 15th May our Revd Lesley Norburn together with St Nicholas Hospice Chaplain Revd Sharon Connell will be having their heads shaved on Bury Market place at 12:00 - high noon!

This is to mark 40 years since the hospice (founded by Lesley's late father-in-law Revd Canon Richard Norburn) treated its first patient. Lesley dislikes her hair short but hopes to gain a lot of sponsorship for the hospice to have it shaved off. Her long, luxurious locks will be donated to Little Lady Locks who provide free real hair wigs to children who have lost their own hair through cancer treatment or other conditions. So both St Nicholas Hospice and Little Lady Locks will benefit by your kind donations.

Lesley and Sharon would really appreciate your support – and if possible your sponsorship. To donate please contact Lesley or use the following link to their JustGiving page <https://www.justgiving.com/lesley-and-sharon-1711212834160>
